

Dear Family,

I am writing to update you on my progress in service dog training. This month, I primarily focused on learning... the cue come. Which means when my trainer gives me the cue come, I walk up to him, and then sit facing my trainer.

Some other things that I am learning include... side & heel. When my trainer cues me side, I then walk over to the right side of my trainer & stand in position next to him. I do the same with heel, but on the left side of my trainer.

I am good at...

performing the cue under! All I have to do is be verbally told under, & I understand to go either under a table, chair, bench, and then lay down and relax while I am under a table, etc.

I am still struggling with...

leave it. Meaning, I am still attracted to bizarre sounds outside, as well with certain smells. I become fixated and sometimes I do not listen to the cue leave it.

I have the most fun when...

playing with my ^{purple} bone, also when I learn to perform new cues and perform them correctly. I get real happy.

My favorite toy is...

my purple rubber bone.

Wags & Kisses,

miss You...
