Ellexi is in the paper!

DINNER is out of sight

IMPACT—Lorri Barnson, a spokesperson for Guide Dogs of America, talks at the dinner on Sunday about how important it has been for her to have a guide dog and the impact the dogs have on the lives of people who are blind.

IN THE DARK—Attendees wear blindfolds to experience what life is like for those who have lost their vision.

I got ya...
It's my job

I will not touch
it, I want it but I won't do it!

Did you say something?

Patiently waiting for my next meal

Really, just feed me PLEASE!

GDA - Combined Dealerships Motorcycle Ride

That was a fun ride,
lets do it again!

Really, let's GO.....

Thank You for Your Support

Dreaming on my union break

I am tired

GDA - Granada Hills Fire Station # 87

Patience

Waiting with another handler. I am such a good girl!

“I know, I’m so cute”

Looking good in yellow next
to my fireman

Resting again with my friends at Fire Station # 87

Pile up at Station # 87

Don't bother us please.

Thank you Sepulveda Building Materials. Thank you for your unconditional support to GDA and for sponsoring me. We are almost there and I am almost ready for my next journey to Guide Dog College. I am still learning so I am concentrating on fine tuning my skills.

Until my next update, I think I will continue this nap on my instructor and mentor “Skyler”. Until my next update, Elexi is signing off for now....
Elexi OUT
