

GRIZZLY GETS AROUND

Hello Sepulveda!
Thank you for your interest in Guide Dogs of America and Tender Loving Canines and for sponsoring me as I learn what it takes to be a guide dog or service dog. I am enjoying every lesson and experience and gaining confidence and skills by the day. Take a look at some of the places I've been as I get around.

AROUND THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Now that I am growing up, I can take walks in the neighborhood.

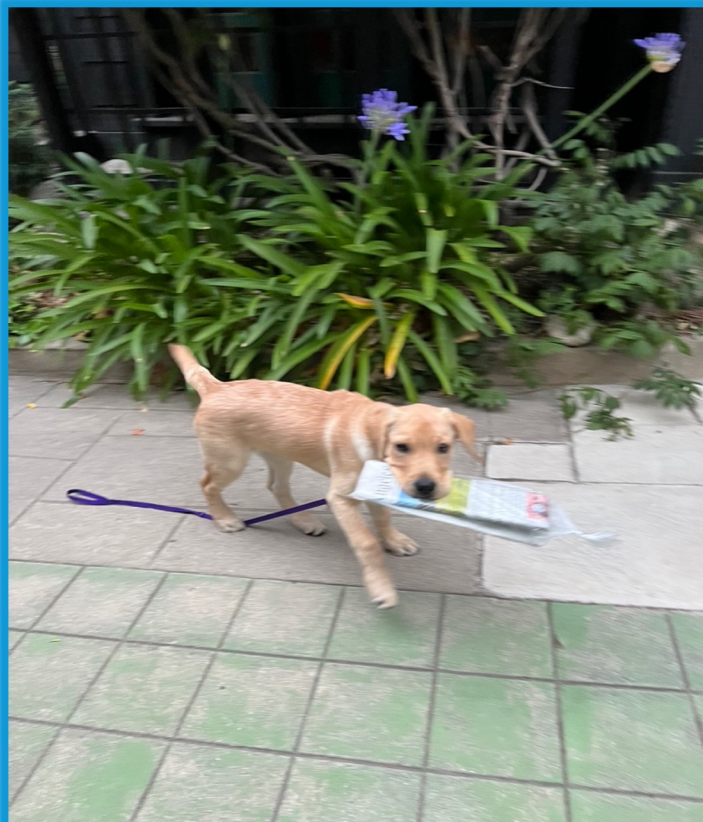

Here I am, in front of my house.

The Gamble House is a Pasadena site seeing destination. It is one of my favorite stops on a neighborhood walk.

I DO TAKE TIME TO SMELL THE FLOWERS

I like to fetch the paper, too!

I GO TO OBEDIENCE CLASS WITH OTHER PUPPIES

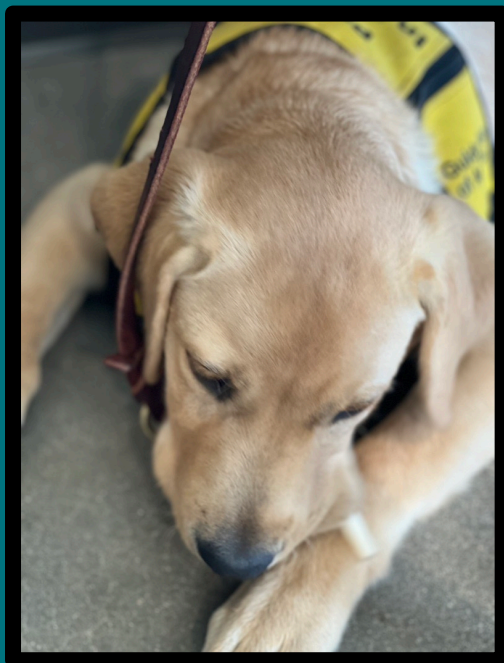

I have to practice all of my basic obedience commands with other dogs trying to distract me. I do a good job of focusing on my handler and paying attention.

I SPENT TIME WITH ANOTHER PUPPY RAISER.

I played with their puppy and went to an outdoor concert.

Getting out to coffee shops and cafes is fun!

I WENT TO A PUPPY RAISER OUTING.

It's fun to see so many other GDA/TLC puppies. It's also fun to explore new parks and towns.

I MADE A POINT OF MAKING THE ROUNDS AT A POOL PARTY!

I WENT TO RENO

My puppy-raisers and I drove to Idaho and stopped in Reno for a night. I visited a dog park and made lots of new friends—people and puppies.

MORE NEW FRIENDS AND NEW PLACES

I practiced my restaurant manners and meeting people
by greeting them gently.

IDAHO WAS GREAT.

Lots of hikes and new experiences.
No asphalt!
Few cars.
Many wild flowers. And the smells. . .

IT WAS A SNIFF SAFARI!

I didn't see many of the wild animals, but I certainly smelled them. They like to visit the salt lick, and so do I!

White tail doe and fawn, young moose, elk, bear, cranes, fox, and various smaller critters: which smell is which?

AND AFTER THE SAFARI, A REST BY THE FIRE.

A chance to reflect on all my new experiences and be grateful for all the support I get from people like you. Thank you, Sepulveda Building Materials Charity Golf Tournament, for sponsoring me. I'll see you around!

Love,

Grizzly
