

Onward with Orchid – January 2023

Happy New Year! I want to thank you everyone at Sepulveda Building Materials for sponsoring me. I am very proud to wear your name on my puppy training vest. Since my last newsletter, I have been very busy being out and about with my training with Guide dogs of America.

In October, I celebrated Halloween and had a Halloween parade where I wore a costume. I wanted to be a butterfly and I wore wings. This is a photo of me waiting for the Halloween party to start. My mom is a volunteer at Guide dogs of America and I had to wait until she finished her work before I could go to the party. I can't wait to see my friends.

Happy Halloween

This is my best friend, Journey. She is Supergirl.

Wolf dressed in sheep's clothing .

This is Bert and Ernie.

Here I am training at the Halloween store. Scary masks.

Training at Joanne's fabrics.

My mother went to Las Vegas and I stayed with the puppy sitter. I had so much fun. We ran in the backyard and played all day long. I love going to Tracy's house so I can play with my friends. Since I am the baby, I get all the attention. And I love being the center of attention.

At Vegas, I posed for a prop. I am in the middle.

Look mom, no cavities.

Did you get a photo with Santa?

As you can see it was a busy few months. Again, I would like to thank you for your support from Sepulveda Building Materials. I am so lucky to be sponsored by all of you. Just a reminder, On Saturday, January 28, 2023, there is a guide dog graduation. The graduation will be held at Guide Dogs of America located at 13479 Glenoaks Blvd, Sylmar, CA, 91342. The graduation starts at 10:00a.m. This is a free event and everyone is welcomed. I will be there and would love to meet you. Orchid
