

Hi Family!

It's me again from Guide Dog College. Just wanted to send a quick update on how I am doing. Wow, I've learned so much! I know how to stop at curbs, make right and left turns, and how to cross the street safely. I keep my instructor safe from obstacles on the sidewalk. I have been working on staying focused around different distractions, like food and other dogs. It is tempting to want to pick it up or say hi to friends I see while working, but with my instructor's help I don't let it distract me. I've been doing so well that I heard my instructor is going to wear a blindfold while I take her around town. I am excited to show off my new skills!

It's not all hard work though. I get to play with my friends and chew on my favorite bones. I love playing tug-of-war with my friends in the morning. The kennel staff here is great! They give us special treats and cuddle with us in our runs when we aren't out training. Miss you, but still having a great time.

Wags & kisses!
